Still another two did the mother bring children to the high ground. Now only the baby in the cradle remained, it being left, till last because it would not be as easily frightened as the older children would. The father returned for it, but before he could reach the house through the first deepening flood, the cradle with the eat on the lookout and the precious baby, and ballasted by the iron rockers, floated out of the door and headed for the current of the river. In vain the mother screamed and the father labored to catch the little ark, it gradually floated down the stream. With sorrowful hearts the parents sought a place of temporary refuge for themselves and little ones until the waters should abate. This being found Kreutzer turned his face towards the sea to find, if possible, some trace...
