He conceives not possibly how the windes should blow so much as they can, and the sea rage as much as it can, and all things do what they can, and all not only without dissolution of the whole, but also of any part, by taking away so much as the usuall seasons of summer and winter, earing and harvest. Let the weather be what it will, still we have bread, though sometimes more, somtimes lesse; wherewith also a carefull Joseph might meet. He conceives not possibly how he that would beleieve a Divinity, if he had been at the Creation of all things, should less beleieve it seeing the Preservation of all things. For preservation is a Creation; and more, it is a continued Creation, and a creation every moment. Secondly for the Law, there may be so evident though unused a proof of Divinity taken from thence, that the Atheist or Epicurian can have nothing to contradict. The Jewes yet live and are known; they have their Law and Language bearing witness to them, and they to it; they are Circumcised to this day, and expect the promises of the Scripture; their Countrey also is known, the places and rivers travelled unto and frequented by others, but to them an unpenetrable rock, an unaccessible desert. Wherefore if the Jewes live, all the great wonders of old live in them, and then who can deny the stretched out arme of...
