Service! Summary: "With twists and turns, humor, and a likable canine character, this series should find a wide fan base."

Booklist "The type is large, the text is easy, and the occasional black-and-white illustrations complement the text well. The clues are unique and true to the fact that a dog is telling the story. The addition of paw prints used as bullet points in King's lists of what he knows about the case and chapter headings with titles like "Nose to the Ground" add to this involving story. Fans of dog stories, mysteries, or readers reluctant to start chapter books will appreciate this story." School Library Journal "Butler tells the story from Buddy's perspective, throwing in details to convince readers that it's really Buddy talking. Tugueau's full-page line drawings enliven a story that should captivate young readers. This first entry in a series is both sweet and suspenseful." Kirkus Reviews "This chipper novel launches Butler's Buddy Files series, narrated by a chatty golden retriever. Readers should be drawn in by Buddy's exuberant voice and readily recognize the high stakes and emotions at play." Publishers Weekly "The...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
