

Going Bush

By Nadia Wheatley, Ken Searle

Murdoch Books. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Going Bush, Nadia Wheatley, Ken Searle, The award-winning journey of friendship and harmony involving sixteen children from eight schools in south-west Sydney as they explore their local environment and work collaboratively on art and writing. We should have harmony among people who live on this beautiful planet. We should make friends with people we don't know. We should play, share and have trust with everyone. Mohammed On this journey I experienced the bush and I experienced life. I also found a brandnew way to learn, and know new things. Christine We worked together, made friends, and played together. I learned about ngurra, trees and plants, animals and Aboriginal people. Alban In 2005 author Nadia Wheatley and artist Ken Searle developed a Harmony Project with sixteen students from eight infant and primary schools in Sydney some Muslim, some Catholic, some government schools. As well as experiencing the harmony of the natural environment, the children were encouraged to learn about harmony between the traditional owners and the land, and to find harmony in friendship and collaboration. Going Bush showcases some of the students illustration and writing, linked together with art and design by Ken...

READ ONLINE
[6.13 MB]

Reviews

This book is definitely worth acquiring. I have go through and so i am certain that i will likely to read through again again in the future. Its been printed in an exceptionally basic way in fact it is only after i finished reading this publication in which actually altered me, change the way in my opinion.

-- Andres Bashirian

Comprehensive guide for publication fanatics. This really is for all who statte there had not been a well worth reading through. I discovered this ebook from my dad and i encouraged this book to find out.

-- Lacy Goldner