Excerpt: . . . living creature is man the spirit; it is the specific self-interchange, the communion, the mutual sacrifice, of soul and soul, and of soul and Him who made it. chnrd is the Bridal of the Church, what f is the Motherhood How does that Jeru salem which is above and is free gender children unto the freedom of the Spirit This is to ask what it is to be born, what the nature is of birth, and what is the part in birth of parenthood. To be born is to begin to live; birth is the first moment of the self-interchange of organism and environment. Parenthood is the action which occasions the beginning of this self-interchange, that is, which places a germ of organic existence in contact with an environment with which it can effect an intercourse and so be quickened. This introduction of the germ into an environment is the Parent essential fact of parenthood, whatever be hood-the specific mode of the generation; from most elementary to the most complex, be it fusion or propagation, or sexual reproduction in all its degrees of articulateness. The parental element in plant or higher creature can do no more than this, --place a germ-cell where it can quicken by union with that which is other than itself. There the germ must bring itself to birth by making interchange of its own substance and force with the substances and forces of the world it touches; which is a...
