YOU CAN WORK WITH YOUR BUDGET TO BUY MORE FOR LESS! DO YOURSELF A FAVOR AND READ THIS BOOK! One of the things that we lack in the teaching of our young people in today's society is how to get the most from your money and how to be financially fit. Most of our schools do not broach the subject and parents usually try to avoid getting into their financial affairs with their children. We hear every day on television or in the magazines how valuable fitness is to our overall health and well-being. Every single person out there also needs to pay attention to their financial well-being, as well. I have always told my children, "If you can save money on the things that you NEED to purchase, such as your household bills and expenses, that leaves more money for what you WANT to buy, or to put some in the bank for a rainy day."
