

Inventing the Rest of Our Lives: Women in Second Adulthood

By Suzanne Braun Levine

Plume Books. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Inventing the Rest of Our Lives: Women in Second Adulthood, Suzanne Braun Levine, The first editor of "Ms." magazine helps women address the three crucial questions of second adulthood: What matters? What works? What's next? New brain research is proving it: Women at midlife really do start to see the world differently. Some 37 million women now entering their fifties and sixties are a unique generation are refashioning their lives, with dramatic results. They have fulfilled all the prescribed roles as daughter, wife, mother, employee, but they are not ready to retire. They want to experience "more." Suzanne Braun Levine gives us a fun, smart, and tremendously informative road map through the challenging and uncharted territory that lies ahead. Levine takes us beyond the frontier of our own expectations and into a new and hope-filled stage of life. Gloria Steinem found so many resonances with my own experiences in this book. It will have a huge impact and will clarify so many things for so many women. Carol Gilligan, Ph.D., author of "In a Different Voice" and "The Birth of Pleasure" Suzanne Braun Levine made me understand why I always envied older women

Reviews

An exceptional pdf and the typeface utilized was fascinating to read through. It can be written in straightforward words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just quickly could possibly get a delight of looking at a written ebook.

-- Prof. Arlie Bogan

It is a single of the best book. This is for those who state there had not been a well worth reading through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
