Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Direct Legislation Record and the Proportional Representation Review, Vol. 9: A Non-Partisan Advocate of Pure Democracy Mr. Geo. H. Shibley, Chairman of the National Non-Partisan Federation for Majority in Cities, writes from Washington, D. C.: The outlook is magnificent. The ease with which the Trade Union and Farmers can be federated is shown by what is already accomplished, see page 78 and 79 of our pamphlet - the Executive Council of the A. F. of L. agreed last September, you will see, to urge the application of the Winnetka System. There is no question but that we can easily get all the labor organizations and all the farmers organizations, and by that time can get the businessmen s associations; and the reform element in the Democratic party, which now has control of the national organization, must adopt this plan, for it is the only means whereby they can instruct at the primaries and thereby hold the organization. With such a declaration at the Democratic primaries, the Republican organization will be obliged to acquiesce. That...
