Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Educational Status and Numerical Strength The Methodist Episcopal Church, recognizing the vital importance of adequate leadership for the church, at the last General Conference authorized the establishment of the Commission on Life Service, in order to make possible One unified system of recruiting, guidance, and selection of candidates for Christian service in the church. (Discipline, 1920, Paragraph 579.) In the personnel problem, that of ministerial supply is first in importance. The church had no adequate information as to the number of ministers needed or the training of those already members of her Conferences. For a long time church leaders had realized the importance of securing authentic data on the ministry. Some limited studies had been made but they were not comprehensive. The Commission on Life Service undertook the investigation. It believed that an understanding of the present situation would be a valuable aid in presenting the claims of the Christian ministry and in emphasizing the education required. There were 14,072 effective members and probationers of Annual and Mission Conferences in the United States as listed in the General Minutes for the Conference year 1922. Of these, 11,275, or 80 , made return on a questionnaire as to their educational status. The statistics in Section One of this study are based thereon. Elsewhere in this report, use is also made of material derived from this questionnaire. The records of supernumerary and retired members of Conferences were not sought, except for the limited number who were acting as supplies. All members of Foreign Conferences were omitted. Supply pastors were also asked to give their educational records, and 2,480 or 67...
