Excerpt: . the detriment of the citizens of those countries and of our missionar v effort we urge Congress to enact a law prohibiting American citizens from engaging in the beverage liquor traffic in American consular districts in foreign countries. We recommend that the Federal Prohibition code be made applicable to the Phillipine Islands and to all the territory to which the Eighteenth Amendment applies, and which is under the jurisdiction of the States. VVe appeal to the Federal Law Enforcement Department to use greater care in issuing the permits for the manufacture of alcoholic preparations of proprietary medicines which are required by law to be unfit for beverage use, but which are actually used for beverage purposes. We believe that such permits should be granted only to those who make such preparations unfit in fact, as well as in theory, for beverage use. The increase of withdrawals of liquor and alcohol for non--beverage use since the advent of prohibition United, a limited number of government or bonded warehouses, and we suggest suitable action be taken to prevent such liquors from being withdrawn for illegal uses. The enforcement of national prohibition is not a political issue but a plain patriotic duty. We appeal to the incoming administration to increase the efficiency of the Federal Law Enforcement Department by retaining only those ofiiicers and agents whose records have shown a high degree of efficiency in the service and by replacing with a higher type of public...
